Western Women's Lacrosse League Structure For 2012

Scheduling Requirements

(Teams are required to have a draft schedule completed and brought to the league meeting)

Division 1 –

Minimum Requirements: All teams are required to play each team in their region once. All Division 1 teams are required to play three inter-region games but not all three games can be played within one region. (i.e. a North team can play 2 South, 1 Central but not 3 South) Division 1 must also play the minimum number of WCLA opponents. See below:

WCLA Game Requirement

2012: 9 regulation games versus WCLA opponents

Please note, if your regional play plus inter-region play is less than the required 9 games, this means you must schedule additional WWLL D1 or D2 opponents, play a WWLL D1 or D2 opponent twice or schedule non-WWLL teams who are WCLA members to ensure you are playing the required 9 WCLA games for 2012.

Inter-region games results will not count toward regional standings but will count for overall standing. Inter-division game results will not count towards regional standing but will count towards overall standing. Games against Provisional members or B Division members will not count towards overall standing and are considered scrimmages.

All tournaments you plan on attending must be noted on your schedule if your opponents are not known at the time the schedule is due.

Division 2 –

Minimum Requirements: All teams are required to play each team in their region once for regional standing and are also required to play 2 inter-region games. Division 2 teams must also play the minimum number of WCLA opponents. See below:

WCLA Game Requirement

2012: 7 regulation games versus WCLA opponents

Please note: if your regional play plus inter-region play is less than the required 7 games, this means you must schedule additional WWLL D2 or D1 opponents, play a WWLL D2 or D1 opponent twice or schedule non-WWLL teams who are WCLA members to ensure you are playing the required 7 WCLA games for 2012.

Inter-region games results will not count toward regional standings but will count for overall standing. Inter-division game results will not count towards regional standing but will count towards overall standing. Games against Provisional members or B Division members will not count towards overall standing and are considered scrimmages.

All tournaments you plan on attending must be noted on your schedule if your opponents are not known at the time the schedule is due.

B Division –

All teams are required to play each team in their region twice for regional standing. Inter-division game results or out of league results will not count towards regional standing and will not count towards overall standing as these games are classified as scrimmages.

Scheduling requirements for these teams are subject to change, pending the final outcome of any new proposals.

Provisional –

Provisional Members are encouraged to schedule as many games as feasible for their team. Please note that there will be a proposal at the league meeting to combine the B division and Provisional.

Scheduling requirements for these teams are subject to change, pending the final outcome of any new proposals.
